Description

Blending durability, airflow, mobility, and comfort, the PHX Helios jerseys' race-inspired design provides all the essentials with class-leading performance and style.

- Moisture-wicking fabric provides a soft, lightweight fit while moving sweat away from the body, keeping riders cool and dry.
- Vented mesh paneling increases airflow, breathability, and range of motion.
- Sublimated graphic panels are fade resistant for vibrant, long-lasting color.
- All-way stretch mesh collar and sleeve cuffs improve fit and comfort.
- Extended drop-tail design helps keep the jersey tucked and in place.
- Lightweight, durable polyester construction for maximum comfort and performance.
